Welcome to HerMedic Therapeutics: Hendrickson Method® Education

At HerMedic Therapeutics, we provide structured, hands-on training in the Hendrickson Method® (HM) for healthcare professionals seeking to refine their clinical skills. Our program is designed for massage therapists, physical therapists, chiropractors, acupuncturists, and other manual therapy practitioners looking to integrate advanced manual therapy techniques into their practice.

A Practical, Evidence-Based Approach

Our curriculum emphasizes practical application, clinical assessment, and precision in palpation, ensuring students develop proficiency in:

- Muscle Energy Techniques (METs)
- Wave Mobilization® (Dr. Hendrickson's approach to soft tissue mobilization)
- Joint Mobilization (JM)

Classes focus on functional anatomy, soft tissue mechanics, and treatment planning, allowing students to apply techniques with clinical reasoning and therapeutic goals.

Why Hendrickson Method®?

Developed by Dr. Tom Hendrickson, the Hendrickson Method® integrates METs, JM, and Wave Mobilization® to address both acute and chronic musculoskeletal conditions. This approach combines the precision of orthopedic manual therapy with the restorative benefits of massage, offering an effective framework for pain management and functional rehabilitation.

Comprehensive Training with a Clinical Focus

The full Hendrickson Method® program is structured into twelve courses, conducted over three-day intensive sessions each month. This format accommodates both certification seekers and professionals pursuing continuing education or skills enhancement.

Develop the ability to:

- Assess and address musculoskeletal dysfunction with evidence-based techniques
- Develop precise treatment plans grounded in functional anatomy and clinical assessment
- Apply manual therapy techniques efficiently, reducing practitioner fatigue and strain
- Enhance therapeutic presence and body mechanics for sustainable practice

HerMedic Therapeutics is committed to advancing professional standards in manual therapy education, equipping practitioners with the knowledge and techniques needed to deliver effective, results-driven care.

ABOUT HENDRICKSON METHOD

COURSE OFFERINGS AND STRUCTURE

HerMedic Therapeutics provides a structured Hendrickson Method® certification program designed for both new and experienced therapists. The program consists of four progressive levels, each comprising 12 classes, covering foundational to advanced clinical applications. A "Course" refers to one level (12 classes), encompassing the full scope of Massage and Manual Therapy for Orthopedic Conditions. A "Certification" requires completion of two levels (two courses) and qualifies practitioners as either a Certified Hendrickson Method Practitioner or a Certified Hendrickson Method Therapist.

CLASS DAY OVERVIEW

The day begins with a Qi Gong & Tai Chi warm-up, followed by a Heart Resonance Meditation. The session includes a class lecture and demonstration of a specific clinical protocol, concluding with hands-on practice.

MODULE OVERVIEW AND DURATION

Each course level includes four modules covering each chapter with a review day. Each module runs three days (Fri-Sun), designed to fit the schedules of working professionals.

Upon request, certification can be completed over several months, depending on availability and individual pacing.

Module 1: Foundations, Lumbosacral Spine, Cervical Spine, Review

- Day 1: Foundation (Prerequisite for all other classes) | Chapters 1 & 2
- Day 2: Lumbosacral Spine and Cervical Spine | Chapters: 3 & 5
- Day 3: Review and Clinical Practice for Chapters 1, 2, 3, & 5 | Includes: Hands-on and written exam for certifying students

Module 2: Thoracic Spine, Shoulder, Review

- Day 1: Thoracic Spine | Chapter 4
- Day 2: Shoulder | Chapter 6
- Day 3: Review and Clinical Practice for Chapters 4 & 6 | Includes: Hands-on and written exam for certifying students

Module 3: Hip, Knee, Review

- Day 1: Hip | Chapter 8
- Day 2: Knee | Chapter 9
- Day 3: Review and Clinical Practice for Chapters 8 & 9 | Includes: Final hands-on and written exam for certifying students

Module 4: Leg, Ankle, Foot, Elbow, Forearm, Wrist, Hand, Review

- Day 1: Leg, Ankle, and Foot | Chapter 10
- Day 2: Elbow, Forearm, Wrist, and Hand | Chapter 7
- Day 3: Review and Final Exam for Chapters 7 & 10 | Includes: Final hands-on and written exam for certifying student

TEACHING STAFF

Nikki Rae Whitlock, Certified Hendrickson Method® Teacher and LMT

Nikki Rae Whitlock, LMT and Certified Hendrickson Method® Teacher, brings nearly two decades of expertise in advanced bodywork techniques, offering students a deep and insightful learning experience. Since 2011, she has studied the Hendrickson Method®, spending five years as a teaching assistant to its founder, Dr. Tom Hendrickson, refining her mastery of this powerful orthopedic approach. Her contributions to massage education extend beyond the classroom, with a background in curriculum development, instructor training, and program design at Healing Mountain Massage School. Dedicated to hands-on mentorship and student empowerment, Nikki fosters a supportive and inspiring learning environment where practitioners gain confidence, skill, and a profound understanding of therapeutic movement and manual therapy.

Maria Fernandez, Certified Hendrickson Method® Teacher and Certified Athletic Trainer

With a lifelong dedication to athletics and wellness, Maria Fernandez brings her expertise and passion to each session. Maria holds a degree in Kinesiology and became a Certified Athletic Trainer in 2011, which has fueled her focus on athletic training, sports medicine, and rehabilitation. In 2012 she began her path in Hendrickson Method studies which has lead her to becoming a Certified Hendrickson Method® Teacher. She is actively assisting Dr. Tom Hendrickson himself in certifying the next generation of Hendrickson Method® practitioners.

Kate Oliver, Certified Hendrickson Method® Teacher Assistant, Certified Massage Therapist

With over 25 years of experience, Kate Oliver, CMT, AA combines orthopedic precision with a holistic approach to bodywork. Trained in Hendrickson Method® Orthopedic Massage, Arvigo Techniques of Maya Abdominal Therapy®, and CranioSacral Therapy (CST), she blends clinical techniques with energy work to support long-term healing. Kate personally studied with Dr. Tom Hendrickson and has over 400 hours assisting Nikki Rae Whitlock in teaching the Hendrickson Method®.

Class Assistants:

Each class includes Hendrickson Method® Assistant Teachers or Certified Teachers of the Hendrickson Method. Assistants work closely with students to help them understand and perform the Hendrickson Method® correctly. Assistants are under the direct supervision of a certified teacher.

Hendrickson Method®:

The HM community is thrilled that Hendrickson Method® training is now available in Utah, thanks to the leadership and skill of HM Certified Teacher Nikki Whitlock. Nikki's company, HerMedic Therapeutics, is a member of the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork (NCBTMB), Associated Bodywork & Massage Professionals (ABMP), and the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA). HerMedic and the Hendrickson Method® administration are committed to advancing the field of massage and manual therapy through expertly crafted training that combines the latest research in orthopedic manual therapy with energy healing knowledge.

Dr. Tom Hendrickson:

Tom Hendrickson D.C. is the founder and president of Hendrickson Method® Institute in Kensington, California, where he has been teaching his unique method of massage and manual therapy since 1982. Though the HM Institute dissolved in 2023, Tom continues to certify teachers, to expand the Hendrickson Method® community and make Hendrickson Method® available worldwide.

Dr. Hendrickson began studying the healing arts in 1972. He trained with Zen priest and Shiatsu Master Ryuho Yamada, studied Lomi Bodywork, a system of therapy combining deep tissue massage and breath work from Robert Hall M.D. et al., and trained in Reichian Bodywork under Phil Curcuruto D.C., Ed Jackson M.D., and Peter Levine PhD. He has also studied yoga, Tai Chi, and meditation, which he has practiced daily for nearly 50 years. Dr. Hendrickson has a deep interest in the interface of healing and modern science and has trained with healers Rosalyn Bruyere and Muriel Chapman D.O. In 1982, Dr. Hendrickson completed a one-year apprenticeship and four-year training program under the legendary Lauren Berry, RPT, a mechanical engineer and physical therapist who made significant contributions to the field of soft tissue therapy.

Dr. Hendrickson's creation of the Hendrickson Method® arose from this extensive training, devotion to understanding the body and how it heals, and decades of clinical experience. Dr. Hendrickson's textbook, Massage and Manual Therapy for Orthopedic Conditions (LW &W, 2009), now published in five languages, outlines the Hendrickson Method protocol and is used in advanced massage and manual therapy courses throughout the world. His instructional DVD, Hendrickson Method® Massage & Manual Therapy with Dr. Tom Hendrickson, showing the techniques described in the textbook was released in August 2011 and is available to students at hendricksonmethod.com.
